

Tower Hamlets, Black History Month 2009 presents
A Role Model for Democratic Action:
Barack Obama

Date: Tuesday 13th October 2009

Time: 10 am - 12.30 pm

Venue: Tower Hamlets Town Hall, Mulberry Place, East India Dock E14 2BG

Telephone: 020 7364 5000 Disabled access DLR East India Dock/Blackwall Bus 277

Category: Primary School Council and their link teachers Price: Free

Black History Month 2008, in celebration of Nelson Mandela's 90th birthday ACTSA (Action for Southern Africa) campaign manager, Mark Beacon, opens Tower Hamlets Fair Play Wall, with the presentation of Seven Mills Primary School Council's 'Democratic Declaration' pledging to promote rights and democratic participation.

Training session with guest speaker on Barack Obama. Aimed at primary school councillors and their support teachers. Students explore the life of the American President, looking at the power of speech to bring about change. Supporting children's voice in schools and local government as celebrated by the Town Hall's Fair Play Wall.

Humanities Education Centre, Tower Hamlets PDC, English Street, E3 4TA

T: 020 7364 6405 | F: 020 7364 6422 | E: hec@gn.apc.org | W: www.eastendtalking.org.uk

* * * * *

A Role Model for Democratic Action: Barack Obama
Registration Form

Name of school
Your name
Position
Tel:		Fax:
Email:
Year/class		Number of students
Students name/s

Please complete the form and return to Sharifa Khanom

Mail: Humanities Education Centre, Tower Hamlets PDC, English Street, London E3 4TA

Email: hec@gn.apc.org

Fax: 020 7364 6422

You will then receive confirmation along with information and activities for the day